Content Strategy and Information Architecture

How would you define content strategy?

How can content prototypes help with the web design process?

What must be finished first, content or design?

“There is a symbiotic relationship between content and design. One cannot thrive without the other.”

Mark Boulton

Thinking Mobile First

How Can Focusing On the Constraints or Capabilities of Mobile Devices Help Improve Our Websites?

“Design is the art of gradually applying constraints until only one solution remains.”

Unknown

Use Constraints to Focus on User Needs

Take Advantage of Mobile Capabilities
