

RWD

Class 15

Overview

Article Review (15 min)

Thoughts For the Future (15 min)

What Would You Tell Your Past Self?
(10 min)

Preparing for Next Week (10 minutes)

Break (5 min)

Liz Yokum + Group Work Time
(2 hours)

Reminders:

HTML/CSS Prototypes/Templates: May 10 - Blackboard

Pattern Library: May 10 - Blackboard

Project Overview + Hub In Class: May 10 - In Class, Nothing to Submit

Self/Group Evaluation: May 12 (Finals Week) - Online Survey

Make sure you submit your assignments to your project hub and Blackboard Learn so that I can grade them!

Evaluations

Delivering the Deliverables

Client Relationships and the Multi-Device Web

<http://alistapart.com/article/client-relationships-and-the-multi-device-web>

Thoughts for the Future

1

We Need Good,
Structured Content (Early)

2

Be Realistic With Your Timeline

3

Mobile-First (You're Not In Control)

4

Test Your Designs

5

More Prototypes

6

Don't Forget Performance &
Accessibility

7

Feedback Early and Often

8

Document/Write About Your Process

9

Use Good Coding Practices

10

Learn to Collaborate

What Would You Tell Your Past Self?

<http://codepen.io/challahan/pen/zqmeVV?editors=1100>

Process for Next Week

No more than 15 minutes

Bring Up Project Hub

Brief History of Project (Goals, Etc.)

Show Templates and Implementation

Show Main Components in Pattern Library

Next Steps

Feedback and Questions from Class/Client

During each presentation, each class member will use their own devices to submit an evaluation of the final project.

www.rwdkent.com/class/eval

You'll be graded on:

Required Components

How Well You Matched Goals

Presentation of Project

Discussion/Q&A

Participating in Review of Other Projects

Demo

www.ideabasekent.com/redesign

Liz Yokum

Hands-On Work

